Exam Day Policies:

- All classes are to have a written exam.
- TVHS will be "Open Campus" on these 3 days. Attendance will be taken at each assigned exam period.
- During exam days, any student in the building not currently taking an exam must remain in the Commons for study hall. The only exception is If students attend a review session with a teacher in their classroom, and then they are to remain there for the entire class period.
- Non-exam class periods are for student review. Students may check in with teachers during the assigned class period to review or prepare for their exam.
- Parents: If you have concerns about the open campus for your son/daughter and would like for them to remain in the building for the entire day, please notify the high school office.
